

SPIEL

It begins and ends with Jesus.

So this summer lets get together to worship Jesus - not just through song, but with our whole lives. We want to worship through justice, through mission, through evangelism.

The 2007 Soul Survivor festival will be hosted by Mike Pilavachi (Soul Survivor UK). With a bunch of awesome speakers, cafés, bands, seminars, worship and sports - we want to give lots of space to enjoy worship in the presence of the One we love. It's going to rock!

So join us, not as a spectator, but as a part of the conversation, that together we would be inspired and stirred to live lives that really count.

DATES: January 3rd - 7th, 2007.

Gates open Wednesday, 2pm.

Festival finishes on Sunday at midday.
